McKees Rocks. Peremptory demands upon strikers to vacate the company houses they now occupy, were made last night by the Fidelity Land company, rents them, and deputy sheriffs armed with written eviction notices serv ed them. The action took the strikers by surprise.

While the strikers were busy in their houses last night, advantage was taken of the deserted condition of street and railroad tracks to shunt three sealed box cars into the plant. The cars were labeled scrap iron, but the striking workingmen are firmly convinced the cars carried strikebreakers into the plant.
